Numb. 6615.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 9. to Tuesday September 12. 1727.

St. James's, September 12.

THE following humble Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Excellency the Lord Carteret, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, have by him been preſented to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Sacred Majeſty,

WE the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Kilmainham, the 13th Day of July, 1727, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of his late Majeſty, of glorious Memory, and at the ſame time to expreſs our Joy on your happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

Your Majeſty, at the Hazard of your Royal Perſon, has long ſince convinced the World of the Regard you have to the Proteſtant Religion and to the Welfare of Europe; and your Subjects muſt with the utmoſt Gratitude acknowledge, that during the Time you ruled over us in your late Royal Father's Life, you were pleaſed to give us undeniable Proof, that you had nothing more at Heart than the Welfare and Happineſs of your People: From hence it is that your Subjects reſt aſſured that they ſhall, during your auſpicious Reign, enjoy every Bleſſing that flows from conſummate Wiſdom and experienced Goodneſs.

We on our Parts do with the greateſt Truth and Zeal beg Leave to make a Tender of our Duty to your Majeſty, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall with the greateſt Readineſs devote our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Perſon and Government; being truly ſenſible how much our Happineſs, and the Happineſs of our Poſterity, depend on our being govern'd by your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue.

To the King.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Catherlogh in Ireland, ſigned the Firſt of Auguſt, 1727, at the Summer Aſſizes held in Carlow, for the ſaid County.

SIR,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, now firſt generally aſſembled ſince the Deceaſe of our late gracious Sovereign, and the Acceſſion of your Majeſty to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, humbly beg Permiſſion to preſent our Condolance and Congratulation on thoſe great Occaſions.

Your Majeſty's pious Expreſſions of filial Grief, are to us an Example not to reſiſt and ſuppreſs, but to indulge and declare our reaſonable Sorrows for ſo publick and unexpected a Calamity as the Death of our Country's loving Father, the World's great Benefactor, whoſe unwearied Endeavours, ſucceſsful Influences, and unparalell'd Fatigues at the laſt Period of Life, for the Welfare and Glory of theſe Kingdoms, and Peace of Europe, muſt render his Memory honour'd and precious, where-ever Gratitude ſhall be found among Men.

Though theſe Reflexions imprint in our Minds the deepeſt Concern, yet we cannot but be truly ſenſible of our Safety and Happineſs in your Majeſty's immediate and peaceful Succeſſion to the Imperial Throne of theſe Realms. This peculiar Inſtance of Divine Protection has intirely diſſipated all thoſe Apprehenſions whith naturally ſpring from the Deceaſe of a great and good Monarch, and has ſo amply repaired the Loſs, that with the utmoſt Sincerity we do aſſure your Majeſty, our Satisfaction and Joy in your Reign are without Mixture of Doubts or Fears.

For what in Reaſon may we not promiſe ourſelves from the auſpicious Government of a Prince, who has ſhin'd and diſtinguiſh'd himſelf in War and Peace, in Ruling and Obeying, and has given many repeated Proofs of true Piety and Love to our happy Conſtitution in Church and State? And what may we not ſurely expect from your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration in Council, and Speeches in Parliament, ſince the Credit of Aſſurances from your Throne has been happily reſtored, and we are confident will ever be inviolably maintain'd in your Royal Family.

Induc'd by ſuch mighty Encouragements, and countenanc'd by the full Streams of Addreſſes univerſally flowing from Fountains of pure pure Loyalty and Duty, we with all Humility approach your Majeſty, in the moſt ſolemn Manner laying at your Feet our intire Faith and Allegiance, and promiſing to your moſt ſacred Perſon and Family a no leſs ſteady Attachment and affectionate Zeal, than Ireland eminently excell'd in for the Houſe of Hanover, both before and ſince your Royal Father's moſt providential Acceſſion to the Crown.

May Almighty God, by whom Kings and Queens reign, protect and proſper your moſt Excellent Majeſty, your moſt illuſtrious Conſort, (in whom all good Proteſtants juſtly glory) and your moſt virtuous Progeny, that through You and Them our Religion, our Laws and our Liberties, may be preſerv'd and continued to us and our lateſt Poſterity.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Lord-Lieutenant, the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Lymerick, the Right Honourable the Lord Carberry, Gentlemen of the Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergymen and Freeholders of the County of Lymerick, at a General Aſſizes held at St. Francis's-Abby, in and for the ſaid County, the Firſt Day of Auguſt, 1727.

WE beg Leave, with Hearts full of Sorrow on this melancholly Occaſion, to approach your Royal Preſence, and expreſs our Concern and Condoleance with your Majeſty upon the Death of your Royal Father, our King and common Father, of ever glorious Memory. This Day permits us not to paſs over in Silence the ineſtimable Gift of Liberty we have received from him; and ever memorable be this Day, which affords us alſo this Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

Our Joy upon this Occaſion, we aſſure your Majeſty, is but faintly expreſſed in Words.

The ſhort Time you had the Reins of Power committed to your Direction, gave us a pleaſing Taſte of that Happineſs which we ſhall now more fully enjoy under your wiſe Adminiſtration.

Your Majeſty's early Declaration in Favour of our Religion and Liberties, hath eſtabliſhed our Hopes. But when we obſerve your Princely Word given as a Pledge to us for theſe great Bleſſings, we think ourſelves in all Duty and Gratitude obliged to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Lives and Fortunes are and ſhall be always ready to be employed in the glorious Support of your Majeſty; and that we will maintain the Honour and Dignity of your Royal Perſon, againſt all Perſons whatſoever who dare declare themſelves your Enemies.

The pleaſing Proſpect of a numerous Iſſue by your Royal Conſort, whoſe private Vertues have long ſince deſerved a Diadem, gives us full Aſſurances, that we ſhall tranſmit to our Poſterity the Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign: We ſhall ſet ourſelves as Examples of Obedience to our Children.

May your Majeſty's glorious Reign, though late, be imitated by your Succeſſour, and may there never be wanting a Prince of your Renowned and Proteſtant Line to rule and govern your Majeſty's Proteſtant Church and Realm till Time and Ages ſhall be no more.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the Queen's-County, at a General Aſſizes held at Maryborrough, the 5th Day of Auguſt, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts full of unfeigned Joy, to ſee it filled with a Prince, whoſe Royal Virtues only could make up to us the Loſs of our late moſt gracious King, of ever glorious Memory.

The Senſe of this, moſt dread Sovereign, has diſpelled thoſe Fears that otherwiſe we muſt have laboured under, and filled us with that Fervency for your Majeſty's Service, that nothing but the Luſtre of ſo great a Prince could inſpire.

From your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Reſolution we derive to ourſelves an Aſſurance of all that a grateful People can expect from a Prince, who places his Greatneſs in the Happineſs of his Subjects; and reſt ſecure of the Enjoyment of our Liberties under a King, whoſe ſtrict Obſervance of the Rules of Juſtice has been always ſo conſpicuous; nor can we doubt of the flouriſhing of the Proteſtant Intereſt throughout the World, when a Monarch (who has ſo gloriouſly diſtinguiſhed his Zeal for that Cauſe) is at the Head of it.

Thoſe unparalell'd Qualities that adorn your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort the Queen, and make Ye the Admiration of the preſent, as well as the Example of future Ages, require from us the moſt ardent Wiſhes for the perpetual Continuance of your Royal Iſſue, which gives ſo pleaſing a Proſpect to all our moſt diſtant Hopes, and ſuch infinite Felicity to all true Proteſtant Hearts.

With Minds thus affected, we beg Acceſs humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on this Occaſion, and to wiſh you a long and happy Reign, with all the Bleſſings that ever did attend a Crown.

May the King of Kings (who rules and governs all the Earth,) bleſs preſerve and keep your Majeſty in Health, Peace and Glory, long the Darling of all your People, the Dread of your Enemies, and the higheſt Felicity to all your Kingdoms.

Theſe are the ſincere Wiſhes and Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your late Royal Father, of glorious Memory; of whoſe paternal Care and Watchfulneſs for the Good of his People, we are ſo ſenſible, that nothing could alleviate our Sorrow, but the Knowledge we have that your Majeſty inherits his Virtues as well as his Crown.

What Bleſſings may we not expect under your Majeſty, when we reflect on your Wiſdom and Prudence, ſo evidently ſhewn when you conducted the Reins of Government?

What Hopes may we not conceive of the Preſervation of every thing that is dear to us, from your early Declaration to your Council, and from the Aſſiſtance of ſo powerful an Advocate as your Royal Conſort, who contemned the Glories of a Crown for that Religion, which is ſo firmly eſtabliſhed by your gracious Speech to your Britiſh Parliament, and which we have the pleaſing Proſpect of tranſmitting to our Poſterity by a conſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe?

Give us therefore Leave, Royal Sir, to aſſure you of our ſincere Wiſhes, that your Reign over us may be as long as we are convinced it will be glorious; and of our unalterable Reſolution to do every thing, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſhew your Majeſty, that we are truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your gracious Protection.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Wicklow, at a General Aſſizes held at Wicklow in and for the ſaid County, the 14th Day of July, 1727.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your late Royal Father, the Reſtorer of our Liberties and Properties. Great indeed had been our Loſs, had not your Majeſty's many Virtues render'd you worthy, and your undoubted Right placed you in Peace on the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

When we conſider your Majeſty's Love and tender Care for your People, and ſee your numerous Iſſue, formed in Virtue by the Example of their Royal Parents, pleaſing are the Proſpects of our future Happineſs, and laſting are the Views of our Religious and Civil Rights.

We, on our Parts, being truly ſenſible of theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, ſhall think ourſelves obliged, by the ſtricteſt Ties of Inclination and Duty, to deſerve the Continuance of them to ourſelves and Poſterity; being fully convinced that on your Majeſty and your Royal Family depend all our preſent and future Proſperity.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Wexford, met at the General Aſſizes held there for the ſaid County, the 19th Day of July, 1727.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, firſt beg Leave to lay before you our hearty Sorrow for the Death of your Royal Father, and then to expreſs our unfeigned Joy at your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, to the unſpeakable Satisfaction of all thoſe who have at Heart the true Intereſt and Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion, the Glory and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms, and the Liberty and Property of your Majeſty's Subjects.

When we ſee in your Majeſty all thoſe Princely Virtues that are requiſite to adorn a Royal Throne, and make a generous People happy, our Sorrow is cleared up, our Loſs abundantly repaired.

Such is the Happineſs of the People who are to be govern'd by you, for ſuch are the promiſed Effects of your Majeſty's Reign; and whether we look upon your Majeſty in the Circumſtances of a Subject, Son, Father, or Friend, we ſee an Example of Duty, Affection, Tenderneſs, and Integrity; Virtues ſeldom to be met with in one Perſon.

So rare an Example in your Majeſty muſt have its proper Influence in the Union of all Proteſtant Hearts, and in the Suppreſſion of Party and Faction; your Subjects therefore muſt henceforth know no other End than the Good of the Publick, and no other Enemy than he who is ſo to your gracious Majeſty, and to the true Intereſt of your Dominions.

May therefore the Almighty preſerve your Majeſty to reign over us, and may He long protect that Life which promiſes your Subjects ſuch Felicity: And we do aſſure your Majeſty, that it is with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and and Sincerity we take this early Opportunity of declaring, that we will do all Things in the Power of an honeſt Proteſtant People, to ſupport your Royal Houſe againſt all Pretenders whatſoever, and thoſe who would diſturb it.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Atherdee, in and for the ſaid County, the 11th Day of July, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave at the ſame Time that we expreſs the greateſt Concern for the ſudden and unexpected Demiſe of his late Majeſty King George, (of ever glorious Memory) to partake in the general Joy for your Majeſty's peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

Your Majeſty's gracious Declaration of your Reſolution to ſupport our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State, gives us a pleaſing Image of the Happineſs we are to expect under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration at Home; and when we conſider the wiſe and prudent Meaſures your Majeſty has entred into, in relation to Foreign Affairs, we have as great a Proſpect from your Negociations Abroad.

If there can be yet left any Enemies to your Majeſty's Perſon or Government, or any Favourers of a Popiſh Pretender, we ſhall, in our ſeveral Stations endeavour, to the utmoſt of our Power, to defeat all their open and ſecret Deſigns; being fully convinced, that every Attempt to make your Majeſty's Government uneaſy, muſt proceed from ſuch as are equally Enemies to the Religious and Civil Rights of their Fellow-Subjects.

That your Majeſty may long continue Defender of the Faith you ſo religiouſly obſerve, and wear the Crown you ſo eminently adorn, is, and ever ſhall be the conſtant Prayer of,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governour, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Cavan, at a General Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, the 3d Day of Auguſt, 1727.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave at this Time to expreſs our Sorrow for the Death of the beſt of Princes, your Royal Father and our moſt gracious Sovereign, and to congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to his Throne, and to the Hearts of his moſt grateful People.

We have now experienced the ineſtimable Bleſſings of a prudent, mild and ſteady Adminiſtration, and with joyful Hearts ſee a long Proſpect of our growing Happineſs under your Care and Protection; and as we well know the Difference between Slavery and a full Enjoyment of our moſt extenſive Liberties, we are fully determined (if Occaſion offers) to ſacrifice all that is dear to us in Defence of a Prince, who we know will defend us from the one, and protect us in the other.

Vain muſt the Attempts of an Enemy be againſt ſuch a Prince, who not only governs mighty Kingdoms, but reigns abſolutely in the Hearts of his People: A Prince who has no Intereſt nor Religion ſeparate from his Subjects, nor deſires more than to make them great and happy.

'Tis with unſpeakable Joy we ſee your Majeſty bleſs'd with a Conſort, and ourſelves a Queen, ſuch as our Souls could wiſh for; who has not only made you a happy Father, and us a happy People by her numerous Offſpring, but ſhews us an Example of all ſocial Vertues, and teaches even the meaneſt of her Subjects to be the beſt of Wives and beſt of Mothers.

May you long reign a glorious Pair over a happy People; and when you are taken hence to receive a Reward for all your Virtues, may we never want a Prince deſcended from you to reign over us; and may none of your's ever want Subjects with our Zeal and unfeigned Affection for them.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kildare, aſſembled at a General Aſſizes held for the ſaid County at Athy, the 2d Day of Auguſt, 1727.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, now met together for the Service of this County, cannot omit laying hold of this Opportunity to expreſs our deep Concern for the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign your Royal Father, of glorious Memory; a Loſs ſo great, that nothing but your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors could repair.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that though we are not the firſt in offering our juſt Tribute of Duty and Allegiance, yet are we ſecond to none in ſincere Affection for your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and hearty Zeal for your Government; being truly ſenſible of the many and great Benefits theſe Nations have Reaſon to expect from the Experience they have already had of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Conduct, when the Reins of Government were committed to your Hands.

The

The pleaſing Views we have from the many Vertues and excellent Qualities of her Majeſty your Royal Conſort, which have eminently ſhewn themſelves in the pious and affectionate Care of your Royal Iſſue, give us the greateſt Hopes of laſting Happineſs to theſe Kingdoms: And we cannot think ourſelves intitled to the Benefits of ſo great a Bleſſing, without giving you the utmoſt Aſſurances of our Loyalty and firm Adherence to your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue, which we do declare we ſhall always hold ourſelves obliged to ſupport and defend, as being our greateſt Intereſt, as well as our bounden Duty.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Corke, at a General Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, the 21ſt Day of July, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE are too truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the mild and gracious Reign of your Royal Father, not to condole with your Majeſty on the melancholy Occaſion, with the deepeſt Sorrow and utmoſt Reverence to his Sacred Memory: But when we look forward to the Happineſs to be derived to us from his glorious Succeſſour, our Concern is loſt in the Fulneſs of Joy, with which we haſten to congratulate your Majeſty upon your peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

The early and firm Aſſurances given us of your Protection of your Subjects in their Religious and Civil Rights, your wiſe Care of Trade, and your gracious Determination to calculate for the Satisfaction of your People, leave us no Room to doubt our being bleſs'd under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration with all the Advantages Subjects may enjoy; and make it our Intereſt and Inclination, as 'tis our Duty, with our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty againſt all your Enemies ſecret or open; and to offer up our Wiſhes and Prayers, that your Reign over us may be as long as we are perſwaded 'twill be glorious.

The many eminent Vertues and Qualifications of your Royal Conſort, excelling equally in Domeſtick and Publick Life, and the pleaſing Proſpect of your numerous Royal Iſſue, give us the moſt reaſonable Foundation to build our Hopes on, that the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign will be perpetuated under a long Series of lineal Succeſſours of your illuſtrious Houſe; and that there never may be wanting in your Majeſty's Poſterity a Perſon to govern us while we ſhall have a Poſterity to be governed.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, at a General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace held at Trim, on Thurſday the 13th Day of July, 1727.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Meath, take this firſt Opportunity of a General Meeting in this County, to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

We thankfully adore the great Goodneſs of God to us, who when He pleaſed to call to His Mercy our late Dread Sovereign your Royal Father, and deprived this poor Country of ſo good and gracious a King, reſerved this Bleſſing ſtill in Store for us, and ordained your ſacred Majeſty to rule as an indulgent Father over a People entirely devoted to you.

May the ſame kind Providence protect you, and long continue this Bleſſing to us; and to compleat our Happineſs, preſerve with long Life to your Majeſty and us your Royal Conſort our gracious Queen; and as far as human Help can do, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ſupport your Crown and Dignity with our Lives and Fortunes, and with true and loyal Hearts, we humbly beſeech Almighty God that your Majeſty and your Royal Iſſue may reign over us for ever.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT having pleaſed Almighty God to take to Himſelf our late Sovereign King George, of ever glorious Memory, we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

Your Majeſty's wiſe Conduct when Prince of Wales, and your prudent and mild Adminiſtration when Regent, aſſure us, under your Majeſty's Government, of the greateſt Bleſſings that ever People enjoyed under the beſt and greateſt of Princes; and the many Virtues which ſo eminently ſhine in your Majeſty, do not only endear you to your Subjects, but will add Luſtre to your Crown.

Being bound by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Religion, Intereſt and Gratitude, we further crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Crown; which that your Majeſty may long wear with Honour and Eaſe, and your Royal Poſterity to all ſucceeding Ages, are the hearty Prayers and ſincere Wiſhes of us,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

To

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cloyne.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Cloyne, humbly preſume to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, and at the ſame Time we beg Leave to expreſs the Comfort we receive in ſeeing the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms deſcend to a Prince ſo eminently poſſeſs'd of all his Royal Virtues and Endowments.

Your Majeſty's known Affection to theſe Nations, and great Regard to our Conſtitution in Church and State, and that uncommon Joy and Satisfaction which univerſally appears in your Subjects on your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne, are certain Preſages of a glorious and happy Reign to your Majeſty over a dutiful and happy People.

As we have theſe clear Views of Proſperity in your Majeſty's Days, which we pray God may be many; ſo Almighty God having bleſſed your Majeſty with a numerous Iſſue, trained up in Piety and Virtue under the Influence and Example of your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, ſo worthy of that high Dignity to which Divine Providence hath advanced her, we have yet a further Proſpect of the ſame Happineſs, as extending itſelf to our Poſterity in your Royal Line, which we pray God may never fail. Towards the promoting theſe good Ends, we ſhall, for our Parts, do our utmoſt Endeavours to perform all Offices of Fidelity and true Allegiance to your Majeſty, and to cultivate the Principles of Loyalty in the Minds of all committed to our Care; and we ſhall never ceaſe to offer up our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, by whom Kings reign, and Kingdoms flouriſh, that he would bring all theſe great Things to paſs, by continuing His Favour and Protection to your Majeſty, our gracious Queen, and your Royal Family, to all ſucceeding Generations.

Dated this 26th Day of July, 1727.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop of Tuam, with the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbiſhop, Dean, Chapter and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Tuam, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms. To this the ſtrongeſt Motives both of Duty and Inclination equally oblige us, being abundantly ſenſible, that the Death of your Majeſty's Royal Father, (which we heartily condole) would have been to us, as well as to the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects, an irreparable Loſs, if God had not been pleaſed, in His Mercy to us, to preſerve your Majeſty, and to place you as ſecurely in the Throne of your Dominions, as you are in the Hearts and Affections of your People.

The many Inſtances of that conſummate Wiſdom, excellent Temper and great Goodneſs which have all along been conſpicuous in your Majeſty, give us the greateſt Aſſurance, through the Bleſſing of God, not only of a mild and gracious Reign, but alſo of a happy and proſperous one to your Majeſty and to all your Subjects; and that the ſame will have a moſt powerful and good Influence upon the Affairs of the whole Chriſtian World; for all which our moſt devout Prayers ſhall never be wanting.

And as the Power of Religion and Piety becomes more diffuſive by great Examples than by any other human Means; ſo we doubt not, but that the ſhining and exemplary Virtues of your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, will extend themſelves through all your Dominions, to the Confuſion of Vice and Immorality.

From hence we conceive no vain Confidence, that we ſhall have in your Majeſty and our gracious Queen, a moſt tender nurſing Father and nurſing Mother to the holy Church eſtabliſhed among us, whoſe Members cannot ſwerve from the Duty and Allegiance which they owe to your Majeſty, without forſaking the Principles of that true Religion which they profeſs.

What remains for us, is by our fervent Prayers to Almighty God for your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us, and the Proſperity of your Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe; by our Zeal and Fidelity to your Majeſty, and by our mutual Love and Charity to one another, as far as in us lies, to perpetuate theſe Bleſſings in your Royal Line to us and to our Poſterity.

And although the Smallneſs of our Number in this remote and thinly inhabited Part of your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, may ſcarcely be thought ſufficient to juſtify our Preſumption in giving your Majeſty the Interruption of this Addreſs; yet we humbly hope and pray, that your Majeſty of your great Goodneſs will be pleaſed graciouſly to accept of that full Meaſure of Duty and Affection towards your Majeſty, with which our Hearts, and thoſe of all others ſincerely of our Communion here (for whom we are ready to anſwer) are truly poſſeſs'd.

The following humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, at an Aſſizes held for for the ſaid County the 12th of July 1727. has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grandiſon, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Paget Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, the Loſs of whom could never have been ſufficiently made up to us but in you, Sir; a Prince of ſuch exalted Virtues and diſtinguiſhed Qualities, as diſſipate all our Grief, and aſſure us of the ſame mild and happy Reign over us.

We moſt ſincerely congratulate you on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, and ardently wiſh there may never be one wanting of your moſt illuſtrious Houſe to ſit thereon.

Your Majeſty's paternal Care for your People, and tender Regard for our moſt happy Conſtitution, expreſſed both in your Declaration and Royal Speech to your Britiſh Parliament, call upon us and all your Subjects for the higheſt Acknowledgments and Thankfulneſs; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that not only our Duty and Intereſt, but alſo our Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſhall forever engage us, at the Hazard of all that is dear and valuable to us, to ſupport and defend, to the utmoſt of our Power, your Majeſty's undoubted Right to your Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and all other your Majeſty's Dominions.

The following humble Addreſs of the Sufferane, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Fremeen of the Corporation of Cloghnikilty, in the County of Corke and Kingdom of Ireland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Burlington, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle Lord of the Bed-Chamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

BE pleaſed to permit us to join in a ſincere Condolance with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, for the unparalelled Loſs of your Royal and moſt dear Father our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of happy Memory; and alſo to admit us to join with them in Expreſſions of the moſt exalted Joy for your Majeſty's happy and peaceable Acceſſion to your Throne, which alone could alleviate and entirely diſſipate our Grief and Affliction.

It is with the greateſt Comfort and Satisfaction we behold the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe ſo well ſecured by a numerous Iſſue, deſcended from your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort (the moſt admired Jewel of the Britiſh Crown) which gives us undoubted Hopes of tranſmitting our happy Eſtabliſhment to lateſt Poſterity.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration from the Throne to preſerve our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and to ſecure to all your Subjects the full Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights, fills our Hearts with the higheſt Return of Gratitude; and the Experience we have had of your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, added to the Affection which you have been pleaſed to expreſs for your Subjects, gives us the delightful Proſpect of a glorious Reign over a flouriſhing and happy People.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty in the moſt humble Manner, that it ſhall always be our fixed Reſolution to maintain and defend your Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all Pretenders whatſoever.

May Almighty God direct and proſper all your Majeſty's Counſels, Armies and Fleets, to the Welfare and Proſperity of your own Subjects, and the Terrour of all your Enemies; and that your Majeſty may very long and happily reign over a loyal, flouriſhing and united People, free from all Party Factions, are the ſincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common-Council, Gentlemen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Deal, in the County of Kent, and within the Juriſdiction of the Cinque Ports, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your Acceſſion to the Throne of your late Royal Father, of happy Memory, for whoſe Death we are affected with a Sorrow equal to the Loſs of a Prince ſo great and good.

But we have the Happineſs to ſee that Loſs fully compenſated, ſince Providence has given us in your Majeſty a King, whoſe Ability and Experience for Government, and whoſe Love of his People, will fully ſecure to us the Enjoyment
